Underwriters Laboratories Inc. is an independent, not-for-profit product safety certification organization that has been testing products and writing Standards of Safety for over a century. During this time, they have held the undisputed reputation as a leader in product safety testing and certification within the United States.

When you see the familiar UL marking, you can be confident that our gen² products have passed a complete and thorough set of tests and certification requirements. These tests will be randomly readministered several times a year to ensure that the products you purchase maintain the highest level of quality and safety.

If you have any questions regarding our product, please feel free to contact us.
